

AUTORS GUIDE

Mandatory

All conferencists of International Symposium of South American Camelids Fiber (ISSACF) and Científical Meeting of the Peruvian Association of Animal Production (APPA-2010) are required to submit their contributions, which will be published in the ISSACF and APPA-2010 proceedings.

Deadline for submission full papers

August 30, 2010.

Remission of lectures.

The Committee Published the ISSACF and APPA-2010 will accept contributions in Spanish and English for the proceedings this event. The contributions will be remitted with the title, additional key words and summary translated in English. If the language of the contribution is English, the translations should be made in Spanish. Work will be sent by e-mail to: edgarquispe62@procasud.com or conventional post to:

Edgar Carlos Quispe Peña
Vicerrectorado Administrativo
Universidad Nacional de Huancavelica
Jr. Victoria Garma 275 e Hipólito Unánue 280
Huancavelica
Perú

Format

The whole contribution will be included in a single file including text, tables and figures, which should be of sufficient quality. The size of the files cannot be superior to 4 megabits. The text length of the manuscript must be between 10 and 12 pages including drawings and tables.

The text of the work will be presented in Word format, A4 size, left margin: 2 cm, superior, right and inferior: 1,5 cm, lettering Times New Roman 11, exact spacing, 14 points.

Structure of manuscripts

The whole contribution should include obligatorily: Title, authors, address, additional key words summary and bibliography and the corresponding translations to a second language. The lay-out of the text is open, although it should follow a logical order.

- Title. It should be brief and informative to the objective and content of the work. Maximum extension is of two lines (approximately 90 characters, blank spaces included). Likewise an abbreviated title should be included of less than 60 characters, blanks included.

- Authors. The name of the authors will go in lower-case: the first author: Surname, Initial and the following authors: Initial Surname, separated by comas. The address, will include the complete Institutional Postal address and the communal electronic mail of the authors, identifying the author for correspondence. For example:

Quispe E.C.^{1*}, L. Alfonso², A. Flores³, H. Guillén¹ y Y. Ramos¹

¹ Programa de Mejora de Camélidos Sudamericanos (PROCASUD). Universidad Nacional de Huancavelica. Ciudad Universitaria Paturpampa s/n. Huancavelica, Perú.

² Departamento de Producción Agraria, Universidad Pública de Navarra, 31006 Pamplona, España.

³ Escuela de Post Grado. Universidad Nacional Agraria La Molina. Av. La Molina s/n. La Molina. Lima, Perú.

* Author for correspondence: e-mail: edgarquispe62@procasud.com

- Key words. The key words are additional (not included in the title) and are explicit of other aspects of interest dealt with in the work. These words should be very concrete and with a well defined content. These words have a great importance since they are incorporated in the different search pools and databases. 5 maximum; use words and not sentences.
- Summary. This should describe the purpose of the study, cite in a very succinct way the methodology used, highlight the main results and indicate the main conclusions. It should be sufficiently succinct, informative, explicit and clear to understand the work without needing the text and induce to the reader those scientists who could be interested. Approximately 300 words
- Introduction. This should be brief. Focused on the records and current situation of the object of the study, justifying the interest of the study in Fiber Production and specifying at the end, the objectives of the work.
- Further sections (Topic development). The experience or review should be sufficiently detailed with singular aspects of material and methods, results and discussion about different items. Each subtopic should be considered with subtitles.
- Acknowledgments: The authors will be able to briefly thank any collaboration, recognizing the work of institutions or people whose contributions, in such, aren't justifiable of the authorship but sufficient to recommend the appearance of the names, and or the filiations of the given collaboration (scientific consultant ship, collection of data, etc.). The source of funding of the investigation should appear in the thanks addendum, acknowledging the support and specifying the nature of such (investigation project, material support).
- Bibliography: The citation of work related with the topic of the contribution published previously in journals, proceedings, texts and others. For the references in the text, the surnames of one or two authors, but only the Surname of the primary author should be named, continued by et al. when three or more.

All the references which appear in the text should be verified in the Bibliography section and vice versa and well indexed (authors, year, title, magazine, volume, pages, etc.). Those references in foreign languages should be carefully checked. The relation of the mentioned bibliography will be alphabetically listed by the authors (those repeated names, in chronological order and, if of the same year, adding to this a letter: a, b, c, etc.), indicating: authors (all), year, title, magazine (abbreviated in agreement with the list of the ISI, available in http://www.efm.leeds.ac.uk/~mark/ISIabbr/A_abrvjt.html), volume: first-last page. For example:

Mueller J.P. 2008. Estrategias para el mejoramiento de Camélidos Sudamericanos. En: Quispe E.C., J.P. Mueller, J. Ruiz, L. Alfonso & G. Gutiérrez. Actualidades sobre adaptación, producción, reproducción mejora genética en camélidos, pp. 113-124. Edición Gráfica Industrial, Huancayo, Perú.

Montes M., Quicaño I., Quispe R., Quispe E. & Alfonso L. 2008. Quality characteristics of Huacaya alpaca fibre produced in the Peruvian Andean Plateau region of Huancavelica. Span. J. Agr. Res., 6(1): 33-38.